A CAUSTIC REVIEW OF THE TRIAL OF THE WOMEN.

Lunenburg County Disgraced.

A JUDGE'S REMARKABLE RULING.

Legal Precedent's Disregarded-The Law Not Regarded-The Trial a Farce.

[Editorial-The Richmond Times (Dem) August 20, '95]

When all the facts and circumstan ces connected with the murder of Mrs Pollard, in Lunenburg county, and the four convictions therefor, are considered, the case easily becomes on of the most remarkable in the history of judicature.

REVIEW OF THE CASE.

We will recall some of its leading facts. The horrible murder and the confession of solomon Marable, as soon as he was arrested, implicating three Negro women with himself aroused the people of Lunenburg county to such a pitch of frenzy that the dominating spirit of the county from that moment to this has been bent on the conviction and execution Every allowance is to be made for the excited state of the public mind there, but the fact cannot be overlook ed, all the same, that the people have been in no frame of mind to make a thorough and impartial investigation into the facts and circumstances in the

IN DANGER OF MOB LAW.

Consequently the four Negroes supposed to be implicated in the murde had to be removed to the Petersbur jail to save them from the fury of the mob and kept there until the time for beir arraignment and trial. When bey were tried, they had to be card to lunenburg county under mility escort, and the military had to end on the court all through the trial, and escort them out of the coun ty after conviction, to prevent the b from seizing them and executing them summarily. THE KIND OF TESTIMONY ACCEPTED.

The Negro man Marable is a stupid, brutal, Congo Negro, with little more intelligence than an idiot, and the ndividuals of their class ordinaril have When arraigned for trial, they were without the benefit of counse and they had absolutely no advantage es for defending themselves excep such as stupid, illiterate oreatures of their character might think of had, therefore, no trial at all, so far as their defence was concerned.

CONVICTED ON HIS OWN TESTIMONY. When the trials were over, the public learned that Marable himself had been convicted upon his own confession and that the women had been convicted upon his confession, aided by a few very meagre incriminating circum stances but it was also learned that the incriminating circumstances were not sufficient by them selves to sustain a conviction, and that if Warable's confession were stricken out, the women would have to be ac-

It learned also in this connection that in the progress of the trial Mara-ble had retracted the confession that incriminated the women, and had made a second confession which exculpated them entirely, and made his ac-complice a white man whom he nam-

A POWERFUL SUSPICION

This state of the case aroused a pow erful suspicion in the public mind that these women were possibly innocent of the crime, and that the state might be running the risk, in executing then of sending to the gallows people who had nothing to do with the murder. Next, the public had an admission of Juror Hazlewood, that when he consented to the verdict of guilty against one of the women, he did not think the evidence sufficient to justify it, and that he is yet of that opinion, and Ju ror Edwards stated also that he was not satisfied with his verdict, though he has since thought over the case and be believes the conviction was right HIS LAST STATEMENT.

But the public has not taken mucl ount of Mr. Edwards' last change opinion made, as it has been, under condition of things that terrorizes ery citizen of Lunenburg into saying Thomas M. Crump, John H. Mabrey. hat he thinks the women guilty. But the capstone has now been p ipon the case. Another juror, F. A. Jones, has published a letter in which ne makes the following astounding

"At the conclusion of the evidence, londay evening, about dark, the Comjury take supper and come over to the court-room at 9 o'clock, and he would then argue the case and turn it over to the jury that night. After we had the Sunday School Convention at the eaten supper, or just before eating, city of Fredericksburg, Va. we talked over the case one with another, as all the evidence was in, and found that the jury was not willing convict on Solomon's testimony.

DAMAGING ADMISSIONS. When we were taken back to the urt-room, about 9 o'clock, we asked at Solomon be put back on the stand hich request was granted, and both ry and attorneys took Solomon ugh one of the most rigid and seere examinations it has ever been my t to hear. "Mr. Neblett and his associates, seeng the unsatisfied disposition of the ary, asked that the court adjourn oventil next day, to get more testi-ony, which was done. Mr. Neblett id send for another witness on the ext day-Mrs. Clements-who testied that Mary Abernathy, while at er house, asked to see her privately, nd the request being granted, Mary sked her if she (Mrs Clements) ought if the persons who had Mr. ollard's things would bring them ack and put them where he could get nem if Mr. Pollard would drop the secution and have nothing more to lo with it Mrs. Clements said she told Mary that she did not know; that this was a very deep crime—Mary Aberna-thy was crying all the time"
